Thomas S. Dunn

San Francisco Bay Area

(314) 956 - 1436 | thomasdunn.us | github.com/tdunn1248 | linkedin.com/in/thomas-dunn-4ab0445b

Projects

Learner's Guild Curriculum – open-source software (used by over 100 people daily)
· developed a project review system that allows learners to write reviews about projects to facilitate actionable feedback to help constantly improve the overall curriculum
· Technologies used: Express, Pug, RethinkDb, Knex

Bucket Washers – personal project (in progress)
 · A social marketplace that connects local car detailers with potential customers
 · Technologies used: Mobile app built in React Native. Website uses React with styling from Google's Material Design. Google's Cloud Firestore is used for the database

Skills

Proficient: JavaScript, Node, Express, React, Redux, SQL, PostgresSQL, jQuery, Git/Github, Restful Services, NoSQL databases (MongoDB & Firebase), Bash, HTML, CSS

Education

Learners Guild   March 2017 - Present
Software Engineer Apprentice
· A 10 month immersive software engineering program focused on full stack development in an agile team environment to complete weekly goals, contribute to open-source projects, and learn the latest web technologies while strengthening computer science fundamentals.

Northern Arizona University   September 2012 - May 2016
Bachelors of Science in Business Administration, Emphasis in Marketing
Relevant Coursework: CIS 120 - Intro To Computer Information Systems, CIS 310 - Database Analysis Model/Design, CIS 360 - Management Information Systems

Experience

American Solar Direct – San Jose, California   June 2016 – January 2017
Consultant-in-Training
· Worked closely with a diverse number of employees to maintain and exceed sales goals

Quick Slick – Flagstaff, Arizona (mobile car wash service)   Fall 2015 – Spring 2016
Owner
· Responsibilities include the identification of new customers, development of messaging strategies to resonate with end-users, as well as analyzing on-going data of customer base

Weintraub Advertising – St. Louis, Missouri   Summer – 2015
Intern
· Responsibilities included the distribution of print material to key clients, input into social media tactics to integrate in a communication strategy, as well as monitoring database information for media companies